‘Taiwan by Rail’ is rated as a physical level 1 tour. A reasonable level of fitness is required but it’s more about spending time on your feet rather than covering large distances. You’ll be getting on and off coaches and boats, walking around the sights, and climbing some steps. Please consider:

- You will be required to get on and off small boats, coaches and trains without assistance.

Our National Escorts provide a high level of service and support throughout your journey. However, their primary role is to manage the daily aspects of the tour. They are unable to offer extensive personal physical assistance. We kindly ask our travellers to be prepared for the physical aspects of the tour to ensure a comfortable and enjoyable experience for everyone.

JOINING YOUR TOUR:

Set within Liberty Square, the white marble structure with its blue-tiled roof is surrounded by gardens and ponds. Inside, you'll find a museum and a large, seated statue of Chiang Kai-shek guarded by ceremonial soldiers.

Taipei 101 – Once the tallest building in the world, Taipei 101 is a modern icon of the city skyline. Shaped like a bamboo stalk, the 508-metre tower combines design with engineering innovation. High-speed elevators whisk visitors to the 89th floor observatory for panoramic views across the city and beyond.

Day 4: Explore the Pingxi Line

Meals: B, L, D

Travel by coach to Ruifang station to experience the scenic Pingxi Line, a historic railway once used for coal transport. Board the train and travel around 30 minutes to the town of Shifen, passing through mountain cliffs, streams, waterfalls, and old mining towns.

Wander through the Shifen Old Street, where you will see the tradition of sky lanterns being released for good luck, and take a leisurely walk around 20 minutes to Shifen Waterfall (sometimes called the “Little Niagara of Taiwan”).

The path is well-maintained and there are benches en route. Walk back to town and board the train another 10 minutes to the town of Pingxi. Enjoy time to explore the town and admire the old architecture.

Later, the coach will take you to the last stop for the day in nearby Jiufen, a picturesque hillside town known for its lantern-lit lanes, teahouses and ocean views, then return to Taipei.

Please note – the Pingxi Line is operating as local commuter train. There is no reserved seating, therefore you may not be able to sit immediately on boarding the train.

Destination Information

Pingxi Line – Originally built in 1918 to transport coal, the Pingxi Line is a scenic branch railway that winds through forested hills and former mining towns. Today it’s a popular day trip from Taipei, offering a laid-back way to explore Taiwan’s rural northeast.

Shifen Old Street – Set along the railway tracks, Shifen Old Street is known for its nostalgic charm and sky lantern tradition. Visitors write wishes on colourful lanterns before releasing them into the sky, a tradition that can be traced to mainland China’s Fujian province.

Jiufen – A hillside village once at the centre of Taiwan’s gold rush, Jiufen is now famous for its narrow lanes, teahouses and red lanterns. With ocean views and an atmospheric charm, the town is said to have inspired scenes from the famous Studio Ghibli film Spirited Away.

Day 5: Taipei to Sun Moon Lake

Meals: B, L, D

This morning, travel by road to the picturesque Sun Moon Lake, a designated National Scenic Area.

Visit the nearby township named Puli to visit a famous Tea farm plantation and taste a cup of the delicious tea yourself.

Continue to the lakeside Wen Wu Temple, known for its grand architecture and scenic views.

Later, take a shared motorboat cruise around the lake and enjoy the beautiful surroundings.

Destination Information

Sun Moon Lake – Sun Moon Lake is Taiwan's largest lake. The name is inspired by the beauty of the area. The east side of the lake is round, like the sun, while the west side is long and narrow, like a crescent moon. The lake and its surrounding countryside have been designated one of 13 national scenic areas in Taiwan. Due to low rainfall and droughts over recent years because of climate change, please be mindful that water levels may be low during the time of your visit.

Wen Wu Temple – In the past, two temples were located on the shore of Sun Moon Lake. In 1919, a dam was constructed, causing the lake's water level to rise, and the temples were torn down and consolidated at the temple's present location in 1938. In 1969, Wen Wu temple was rebuilt again in the Chinese palace style. There is walk of around 5 minutes on a steep slope up to the top and three-story steps down to the entrance.

Day 6: Sun Moon Lake to Alishan

Meals: B, L, D

Depart Sun Moon Lake and travel to Bantaoyao Craft Park, once a working pottery factory and now a creative hub for local artisans. Try your hand at mosaic making as you learn traditional methods and decorate your own tile to take home. Continue to Yuyupas Cultural Park, set in the Alishan mountains, to gain insight into the heritage of the Tsou Tribe.

Learn about the tea leaves and coffee beans grown here and try a cup for yourself.

Check into your hotel in Alishan for the next 2-nights and prepare for an early morning start.

Please note – Alishan National Forest Recreation is a high-altitude, forested area within a national park, where conservation and environmental protection are top priorities. Development is tightly regulated to preserve the natural landscape, and the accommodation is relatively basic.

You will be staying in a clean and comfortable 3-star hotel, but facilities are simple and reflect the remote mountain setting. Hot water may not always be available.

Destination Information

Bantaoyao Craft Park – Once a traditional pottery factory, Bantaoyao has been transformed into a colourful cultural park celebrating Taiwan’s ceramic heritage. Wander through the workshops, admire large-scale mosaic art, and try your hand at decorating your own tile.

Alishan National Scenic Area – Famed for its ethereal sunrises, sea of clouds, ancient forests and high-mountain tea, Alishan is one of Taiwan’s most iconic natural destinations. Originally home to the Tsou indigenous people, the area rose to prominence during the Japanese era due to its logging industry and narrow-gauge forest railway, which still operates today.

Day 7: Board the Alishan Forest Train

Meals: B, L, D

Rise early this morning for a ride on the Alishan Forest Train to the Zhushan Sunrise Platform, where, weather permitting, you’ll witness magnificent dawn views across the clouds and mountain peaks.

Afterwards, you can spend the morning exploring the Alishan Forest Recreation Area, a tranquil landscape of towering cypress trees and misty trails.

Stop to see some of the area’s natural highlights, including the sister Ponds, Brother Tree and the towering Three Generation Tree.

Today, sightseeing will be around 2-3 hours on foot.

Please note – the itinerary may vary depending on weather conditions and train schedules. Travel within the park will be a combination of shuttle and forest train.

Alishan’s cherry blossom season is typically in mid-March to mid-April, but exact timings may vary each year depending on weather conditions. While departures are scheduled to align with the expected bloom, cherry blossom viewing cannot be guaranteed. Sightseeing in the area may be adjusted to make the most of the seasonal scenery.

Destination Information

Alishan Forest Train – One of Taiwan’s most iconic railways, the Alishan Forest Train climbs through dense forests and misty mountains. Originally built for logging in the Japanese era, today it offers a nostalgic journey with scenic views, especially popular at sunrise from the Zhushan viewing platform.

Meals: B, L, D

This morning, visit the mountain village of Fenqihu, known for its nostalgic charm and narrow lanes lined with traditional shops.

Enjoy a classic old-style bento box for lunch before transferring to Chiayi station to board the high-speed train back to Taipei, reaching speeds of up to 300km/h.

On arrival, check in to your hotel in Taipei for your final night then head out for a farewell dinner.

Taiwanese cuisine is delicious, colourful and healthy. Meals are usually served with a bowl of rice and several dishes of vegetables, sea food (normally fish and/or shrimps), and meats (pork, beef or chicken). Taiwan's other main staple is noodles, most famous being beef noodle.

Food is an important element of Taiwanese culture. It is a time for families and friends to come together and much of family life revolves around the dinner table. Most food is eaten with chopsticks so best get practicing as cutlery is not always available at restaurants.

Meals as listed in the itinerary (excluding drinks) are included. Breakfast will be at your hotel and mostly buffet style but may be a set-menu. Dinners where included are usually the hotel is usually buffet-style, featuring a wide selection of high-quality Taiwanese and Western dishes, whereas lunch at a local restaurant is usually Taiwanese pre-set options.

We usually find this style of dining suits the wide and varied tastes of our customers on tour. Beverages will be at your own expense and are readily available.

This itinerary includes two walking street food tours to immerse you in the local culture. There is no seating during these walking tours.

If you have any dietary requirements, you must inform us before your tour starts, and please be aware that restaurants may not always be able to accommodate these. Gluten-free food may not be as readily available as in New Zealand.

PLEASE ADVISE OF ALLERGIES AND/OR SPECIAL DIETARY REQUIREMENTS AT TIME OF BOOKING.

DEVELOPMENT IN TAIWAN:

Taiwan is an advanced economy and as such matches the west in modernity and technological advances in many aspects. Taiwan is safe to visit and the locals are very friendly and willing to help visitors.

TRANSPORT:

Coaches: Coaches with air conditioning are used on our group tours for city sightseeing, short excursions to the countryside and longer transfers where necessary. Roads in Taiwan are modern, especially in the more populated areas.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS:

If you are travelling during the following public holidays, please be aware that celebrations can last for several days. During these periods, some businesses may close, and coach, air, and train travel could be affected. While tourist attractions remain open, they may be crowded.

- Chinese New Year: 17 – 23 February 2026, and 6 – 12 February 2027
- Tomb Sweeping Day: Typically falls between 4 – 7 April annually
- Dragon Boat Festival: 19 – 21 June 2026, and 8 – 10 June 2027
- Golden Week: 29 April – 5 May annually

ACCOMMODATION:

Your accommodation is chosen for its convenience, comfort, or character. Hotels are generally of a good quality three-to-four-star standard, though there is no international classification system, so facilities and quality may differ from New Zealand.

All group tour hotels include private Western-style bathrooms, air conditioning, and a telephone. Due to environmental regulations, toiletries may not always be provided. If you encounter any issues, please speak to your National Escort. Rest assured, all hotels used by Wendy Wu Tours are regularly inspected to ensure they meet our standards.

TIPPING POLICY:

Tipping while on holiday is common in most parts of the world and Taiwan is no exception. However, it is not always clear who it is appropriate to tip and how much. Furthermore, travellers may not have the right amounts of cash available at the right time.

To avoid any inconvenience, Wendy Wu Tours operates a tipping policy where a stated amount is given to your National Escort at the beginning of your tour and tips are disbursed to local guides and drivers throughout your tour. The amount is designed to be at a reasonable level for travellers while being fair to the local people and includes a gratuity for the National Escort. We generally find that most customers appreciate the convenience of our tipping policy, but we do recognize that it may not suit everyone.

However, as this is a group tour, we ask that everyone follows the same protocol to be fair to other group members and to ensure smooth operation of your tour.

PORTERAGE:

Please be aware that porterage is not included on our tours in Taiwan. You will therefore need to be able to handle your own luggage within the hotel and when using transportation like trains and coaches.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Occasionally where time and weather conditions permit, your National Escort may offer optional activities, usually in the evening. These excursions are optional and paid for locally in cash.

GROUP SIZE:

Most of our groups consist of 10 travellers or more and will be accompanied by a National Escort. There will usually be no more than 28 travellers in each group although you may encounter other Wendy Wu tour groups while you are travelling.

All our departures are guaranteed to operate with a minimum of 10 travellers booked (unless cancelled due to factors beyond our control). However, at our discretion we may operate departures with a smaller group size as we try to operate advertised departures wherever it is viable to do so.

LUGGAGE:

All travellers are limited to two items of luggage each: a suitcase and one piece of hand luggage. It is essential that your luggage is lockable. We recommend packing only as much as you can lift as porterage is not included.

CLIMBING STEPS:

Sightseeing at nearly all the palaces, fortresses and some temples involves climbing quite a few steps. These palaces were built to provide defence against potential invaders so nearly all of them stand on top of a hill, while the interiors have layers of narrow hallways and steps to slow down the advance of enemies once they were inside. The steps tend to be quite large, not level and sometimes without handrails. Buddhist temples or pagodas also tend to be built at an elevation, as this is the most auspicious position according to ancient beliefs. This means you sometimes need to walk from the bus park to the entrance, and/or need to climb some steps inside.

People with knee or hip injuries who have poor balance or are otherwise unable to complete these activities independently should consider the suitability of this itinerary carefully.

VACCINATIONS AND YOUR HEALTH:

We recommend that you contact either your doctor or Health centre for advice on vaccinations and travel health. Safetravel has a comprehensive website that you may also find useful www.safetravel.govt.nz

BEFORE YOU LEAVE:

We strongly recommend registering your travel plans with www.safetravel.govt.nz as in the event of an emergency, New Zealand Consular assistance will be more readily available.

Up until the day you travel, it is vital you keep up to date and familiarised with the entry requirements as these can change at short notice. You are personally responsible for completing any entry forms, conducting any covid tests (if necessary), etc and adhering to countries' specific entry requirements.

You can also access the New Zealand Government's travel advisory service for up-to-date information about your destination on the same website.

AFTER YOUR BOOKING:

Once you have booked with Wendy Wu Tours, you will receive a confirmation invoice including a visa application form (if applicable), and a help sheet. Your final documentation pack will be sent to you approximately 2-3 weeks prior to departure.

ITINERARY CHANGES:

It is our intention to adhere to the day-to-day itinerary as printed; however, the order of events or sightseeing may change as we look to improve our tours or as local conditions dictate; in these circumstances we will make the best possible arrangements whilst maintaining the integrity of your trip.
